

STELLA MATUTINA COLLEGE OF EDUCATION (AUTONOMOUS)

Re-Accredited (4th Cycle) by NAAC at 'A' Grade

Ashok Nagar, Chennai – 600 083

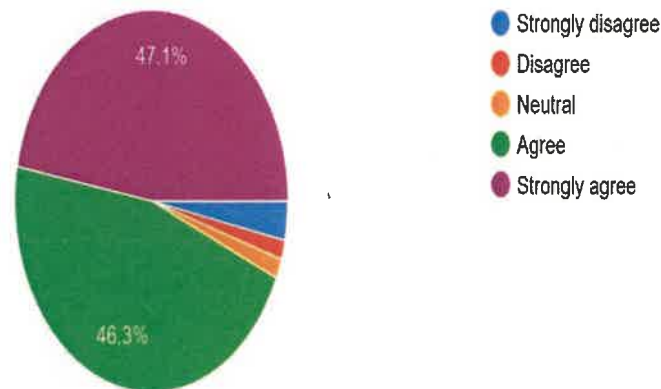

| Tel : (+91) 44-24894262 | Email : smcedn@gmail.com, info@smcedn.edu.in | Web : smcedn.edu.in |

1.4.1 Stakeholders' Feedback Report 2022 – 2023

Students Feedback Report

Semester I

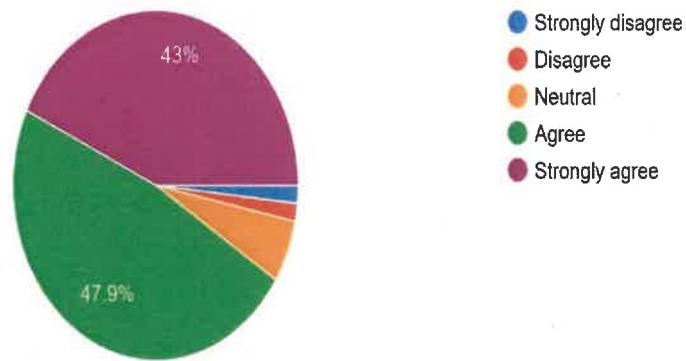

Most of the students strongly agreed that the curriculum content is interesting and suited for teaching profession. Majority of the students responded that the syllabus and the course objectives are made clear at the beginning of the course. They opined that curriculum provides opportunities for developing teaching skills and effective classroom management skills.

Hence 47.1% of students strongly agreed and 46.3% of students agreed that the overall curriculum is effective.

Semester II

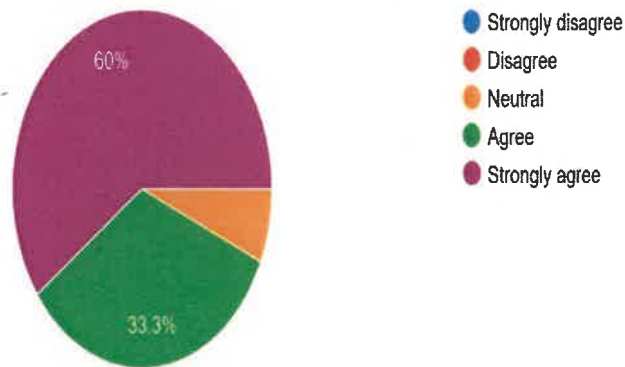

Maximum percentage of students agreed that perspective in education course covers emerging and global issues and pedagogy courses supports them in effective classroom management. Most of the students agreed that the syllabus meets their expectations and the curriculum helps for effective learning.

Hence 43% of students strongly agreed and 47.9% of students agreed that the overall curriculum is effective.

Semester IV

Most of the students agreed that the goals and objectives for every course are made clear at the beginning and the syllabus was discussed. They agreed that this procedure helped them to involve in the learning process with ease. Most of the students strongly agreed that overall curriculum helps them in lifelong learning.

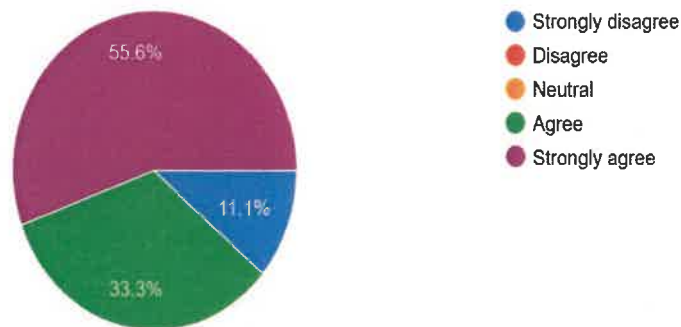

Hence 60% of students strongly agreed and 33.3% of students agreed that the overall curriculum is effective.

Teachers Feedback Report

Semester I

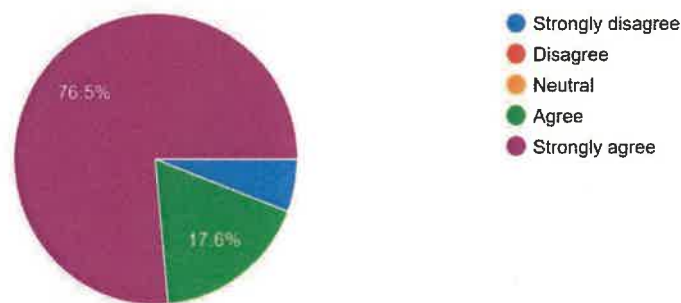

Teachers agreed that the curriculum provides opportunities to enhance analytical skills. Most of the teachers agreed that the curriculum is outcome based and is enriched with socially relevant topics. They also agreed that curriculum gives space for inculcating students' creativity and provides varied career options.

Hence 55.6% of teachers strongly agreed and 33.3% of teachers agreed that the overall curriculum is effective.

Semester II

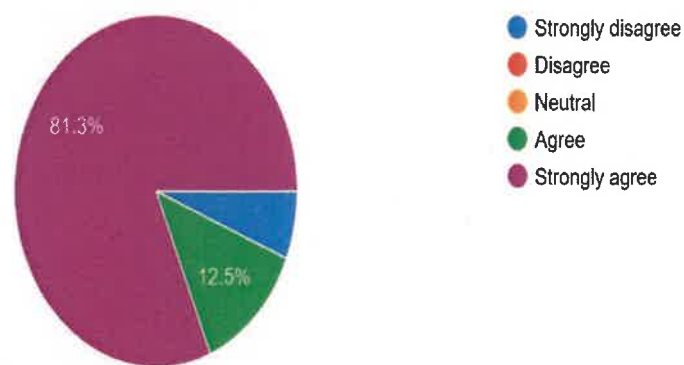

Almost all teachers opined that syllabus covers adequate concepts required for teacher trainees and is relevant to provide career options. Most of the Teachers responded that curriculum has good academic flexibility and allotted adequate instructional hours to complete the syllabus. Most of the teachers agreed that sufficient teaching resources and references are available.

Hence 76.5% of teachers strongly agreed and 17.6 % of teachers agreed that the overall curriculum is effective.

Semester IV

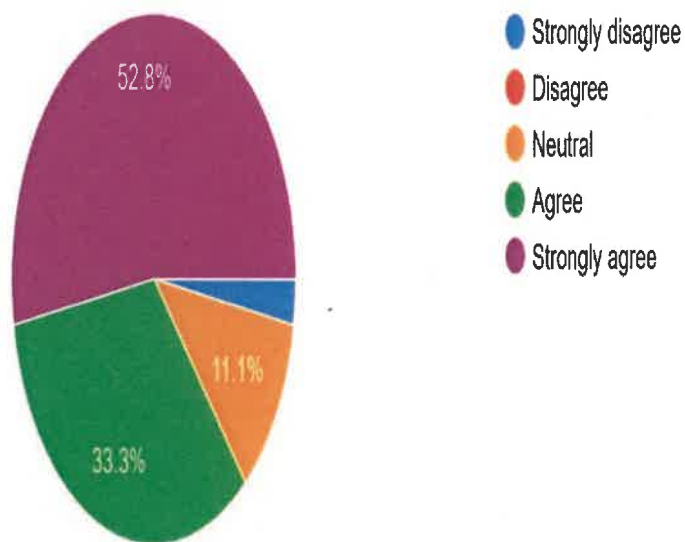

Teachers agreed that curriculum provides opportunity to enhance analytical skills and is relevant to provide career options. Most of the teachers opined that the system followed in the college for designing and developing curriculum is adequate.

Hence 81.3% of teachers strongly agreed and 12.5% of teachers agreed that the overall curriculum is effective.

Alumnae Feedback Report

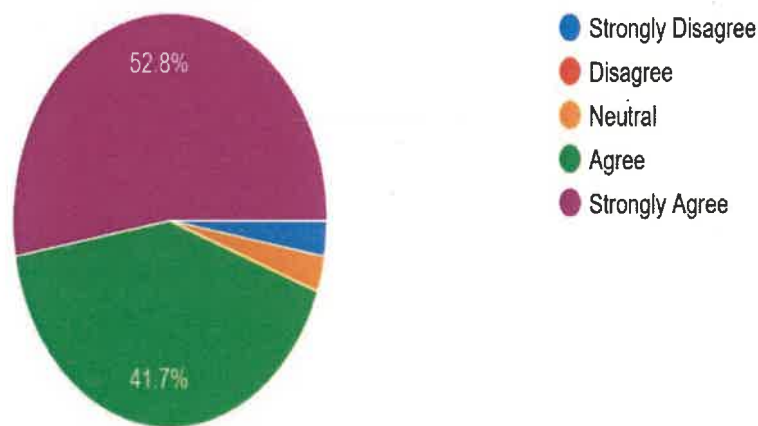

Alumni of the institution agreed that the syllabus adequately covers emerging global and natural issues and sufficient reference materials are available in the library. They also opined that syllabus meets all the expectations in terms of learning values, skills, knowledge, attitude and enhancing life skills through practical oriented activities.

Hence 52.8% of alumnae strongly agreed and 33.3% of alumnae agreed that the overall curriculum is effective.

Employers Feedback Report

The employers agreed that the curriculum adopted at Stella Matutina College of Education is apt and relevant which has enabled the student teachers with adequate life skills, leadership qualities, academic efficiency, excellent communication skills and thorough knowledge of the subject matter. They opined that the curriculum framework is focused on holistic development of would-be teachers, in order to fulfil the demands and challenges of digital natives in the real classroom.

Hence 52.8% of employers strongly agreed and 41.7% of employers agreed that the overall curriculum is effective.

Catherine
Principal
Stella Matutina College of Education
Ashok Nagar,
Chennai - 600 083