7.1.7. Any Other Relevant Information

Stella Matutina College of Education has a genuine policy to admit differently abled students. Students with special needs are provided a conducive learning environment in the campus. The institution has adopted inclusive education, focussing on issues, challenges and recommendations for bridging the gaps, reducing the differences in accessibility for all learners.

The institution has a good infrastructure catering to the needs of differently abled students. Physical facilities such as Ramp, Western Toilets with Holders in the Rest Rooms are available for the differently abled students.

Apart from facilitating admission of differently-abled persons in Teacher Education Programs under both General Quota as well as Reservation Quota, guidance and counseling is provided to differently -abled individuals for their holistic development.

Details on Fee concessions, examination procedures are provided to support the differently abled students.

World Disabled Day is celebrated in the institution. Awareness is created about the issues in concern of the special students among the peers. Classes are arranged in the ground floor for easy accessibility.

Staff and peers maintain a good inclusive atmosphere in the college treating all with equality.
