Orientation on Students Grievance

Program Name	:	Orientation on Students Grievance
Date	:	27.02.2024
Committee In charge	:	Internal Compliance Committee
No. of Students	:
Involved	:	190

The Internal Compliance Committee conducted an orientation for student teachers to explain the college's grievance handling mechanism. Dr. J. Jain Shanthi, the Secretary and Dean of Student Affairs, led the session. She detailed how grievances are addressed, including the availability of grievance boxes placed strategically around the campus. Issues raised are reviewed in committee meetings, and appropriate solutions are provided. She also highlighted the grievance form accessible on the college website, allowing students to submit concerns online. Additionally, the orientation emphasized the active roles of other internal committees, such as the Anti-Ragging Committee and the Anti-Sexual Harassment Committee, which address related concerns. The session aimed to ensure transparency, accessibility, and a supportive environment for all students.

Outcome of the Session

Students gained awareness of grievance mechanisms, online submissions, and internal committees, fostering transparency, accessibility, and a supportive campus environment.

Zero Tolerance towards Sexual Harassment and Ragging Campus

Program Name	:	Display on the Boards and ledge
Date	:	21.11.2023
Committee In charge	:	Anti sexual Harassment Committee and Anti Ragging Committee
No. of Students	:
Involved	:	192

The institution has adopted a comprehensive strategy to ensure zero tolerance towards sexual harassment and ragging on campus. This approach emphasizes awareness, education, and empowerment through various initiatives. Interactive activities such as pledge walls and informative displays on notice boards play a significant role in fostering a culture of respect and safety. Regular awareness programs, workshops, and sensitization sessions educate students and staff about the importance of maintaining a harassment-free environment. The institution's commitment to creating a secure and inclusive campus is reinforced through strict policies and proactive measures. By promoting open dialogue and accountability, the institution takes a holistic approach to eliminate these issues, ensuring a safer and more supportive environment for all.

Outcome of the Program

Participants gained awareness, empowerment, and commitment to fostering a safe, inclusive campus environment free from harassment and ragging.
